MEMPHIS:

ASBURY CHAPEL FESTIVAL.—For the first time in its history, Asbury Chapel steps modestly forward and presents its claims to the public for their patronage of a festival under the auspices of the charming ladies of its congregation. The Chapel needs repairs that will necessitate the expenditure of several hundred dollars, and to raise funds for this laudable purpose in the object of the festival inaugurated at Stillman's Hall last evening. The rain last evening debarred many persons from attending and bearing witness to the beautiful manner in which the hall was decorated and the handsome bevy of fair belles who honored the festival with their presence. The tables were tastefully arranged, the postoffice presented attractive features, the express office created considerable fun, while many of the young ladies exhibited their proficiency at the piano to the delight of the auditors.
We must not forget to mention a new feature—the hat room, which is presided over with considerable grace by Miss Mollie Price. Among the prizes to be voted is a handsome china supper set, composed of one hundred and eighty-five pieces, for the most popular Masonic lodge. Then there is a beautiful French clock for the principal of the favorite female school; a silver service for a division of the Sons of Temperance; a gold headed cane for a city official; a silver pitcher for a newspaper office; and many other nice things for other favorites, for particulars of which we refer you to the young ladies at the fair, who will be glad to see you any evening during the week.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—A difficulty occurred between Attorney General Wallace and Daniel M. Philp, local editor of the Bulletin, yesterday afternoon. Gen.
Wallace felt aggrieved at some remarks made in the Bulletin in regard to his speech at Grand Junction, and denounced the author in an abusive style at the meeting held on Friday night last.
Sunday's Bulletin contained a bitter article on the General, and when he met Mr. Philp yesterday he demanded a retraction. It was refused. The General raised his cane and struck Mr. Philp, the latter attempted to draw a pistol, when the Attorney General drew his pistol and fired without effect. The bystanders separated the parties and the pistol arrested them. In the police court this morning Mr. Wallace was fined twenty-five dollars for carrying concealed weapons and shooting in the corporation, while Mr. Philp was fined ten dollars for carrying concealed weapons.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The grand jury have returned a true bill of indictment against James Brown and Richard Smith, charged with the murder of Patrick Sullivan in Chelsea a few weeks since. The case was heard last evening before Judge Hunter on habeas corpus, who held that the evidence introduced brought the crime within a bailable grade, and held the parties over to answer from day to day. Brown in the sum of $4000 and Smith in $3000.

MEMPHIS FEMALE SEMINARY.

Exercises at the Tabernacle last Evening.

The rain fell steadily yesterday evening, and many persons thought it would cause another postponement of the exercises announced to take place at the Tabernacle. But it did not, for the pupils of the Memphis Female Seminary were present in full force, while every seat in the building was occupied by their relatives and friends. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev.
Dr. Caskey, after which the three graduates, Misses Carrie Ennis, Frances Piercy and Mollie Holt were crowned with beautiful wreaths by Miss Ida Mecham with a few appropriate remarks. Miss Lou Smith performed a piece of music on the piano, when Miss Fanny Piercy delivered the salutatory address in a very sweet and charming manner, closing with a well deserved tribute to Mrs. Haile, the principal of the Seminary. This was followed by a duet by the Misses Looney and a composition on "The History of Memphis" by Miss Katie Wallace, which was highly creditable to the young lady. Misses Ennis and Piercy sang a duet in excellent style, that produced considerable applause, followed by a well-written composition on "Gratitude and Affection" by Miss Ida Mecham. Mrs.
Marks gave a French song with thrilling effect, when Miss Susie Bolling, with considerable grace, read a composition on "Nature and Art," which drew forth enthusiastic applause, and a shower of bouquets. Miss Piercy sang "Kathleen Mavourneen" exceedingly well, after which Judge Brown was introduced to the audience and delivered a magnificent oration on "Woman and her Influence." He was listened to with marked attention. Misses Ennis and Piercy then rendered a duet in a pleasing manner, after which Miss Florie Terry read a composition on "The Language of Flowers." At her side was a pretty little girl with a silver basket filled with a variety of flowers. As the different flowers were referred to, one of the pupils—a type of the flower—was called up and presented with a floral tribute. This was very interesting and highly enjoyed by the audience. To show the proficiency of the scholars in French, a dialogue was introduced in that language, in which Misses Susie Bolling, Allen, Terry, Wallace and Martin took part. A composition entitled "Love conquers all things" was delivered by Miss Mollie Holt, which breathed the right kind of sentiment.
The valedictory was delivered by Miss Carrie Ennis, after which Mrs. Marks treated the audience to a musical general. The President conferred the diplomas on the graduates and Mrs. Haile presented them with gold medals, amid much applause. About twenty-six of the young ladies received honorary certificates, when the audience dispersed to the music of "Dixie," played by Miss L.
Smith.

You can obtain bargains at Mack Bros.
& Bohm's, Main street.

RASPBERRY FESTIVAL.—The basement of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on Court street, has been handsomely decorated for the Raspberry Festival, which was inaugurated last evening under favorable auspices. This church has been fitted up in a beautiful but chaste manner, and is quite an ornament to our city. The necessary expenditure in fitting it up exceeded the funds on hand, and the ladies of the church invite their friends and the public generally to the Raspberry Festival to take some cream, berries and cake and thus aid them to pay off the indebtedness. That accomplished lady, Mrs. Williamson, presides at the festival, assisted by a large number of the fair belles of our city. A visit to the tastefully decorated room, with the bountifully laden tables filled with good things, attended by fair representatives, cannot fail to please any person. The festival will continue until Friday evening, and we wish the ladies success in their efforts.

Twenty-five thousand dollars worth of damaged goods, clothing, boots and shoes are still left and must be sold, regardless of cost or value, within thirty days, at M. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store.

OUR JOB OFFICE.—The Public Ledger job printing department has been lately supplied with the latest and most approved patterns of type, borders and presses, and is better prepared than ever to accommodate the mercantile public.
Our prices will continue to be the most reasonable in the city, while our work is guaranteed to give satisfaction. We have the only complete printing office in the city, and will continue to give our customers inducements no others in this market can afford. Call and see.

New stock and new goods, but must be sold. See Elson's advertisement. 95

THE MEMPHIS LADIES' INSTITUTE.—The graduates of the Memphis Ladies' Institute, Mesdames Southworth and McGhee, principals, will receive their wreaths, gold medals and diplomas at the Greenlaw Opera House this evening. The interesting exercises should draw a full house.

Where do goods store it is that next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store? It is M.
Kraus & Co.'s damaged stock, where you can buy dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, etc., at your own price. Must be sold in thirty days.

MORE SHOOTING.—A man named Fritz Russer got mad at Chas. M. Stevens in Chelsea yesterday and fired his pistol at him. A warrant was issued by Esquire Creighton and Russar arrested for shooting with intent to kill.

STRALING ROPE.—L. Moon and Alonzo Aiken are under arrest for stealing a lot of rope and rigging from a raft near the mouth of Wolf river, the property of Williams & Co. Esquire Creighton will attend to their case.

No humbug, our entire stock at less than Eastern cost. See Elson's advertisement. 95

CITY FATHERS.—The Board of Mayor and Aldermen hold their regular semi-monthly meeting this evening for the transaction of business. The Board of Health, paving and other subjects will be acted on.

Ready's hosiery, only $1 00.
92 SHELLO & BRO. 247 Main street.

TWENTY BARRELS pure Robertson County Whisky; also, large lot Clarksville Flour, at Simpson, Hadden & Co.'s, 202 Front street.

MANICAI.—I hereby certify that my wife, Ellen Brady, was afflicted with madness for the last four years. She was treated for it by the best Doctors in the city of Memphis, and has tried almost all the patent medicines of the age, without any benefit. On the 15th inst., she was treated once by Prof. Roberts, and was relieved in a few moments, and at this time she is as well as she ever was in her life. J. BRADY.

Memphis, June 17, 1867.

Ladies must not forget to attend the great clearing out sale at Shloss & Bro.'s, 247 Main street, for they are positively selling out regardless of cost or value to close business. Go and examine for yourselves. 92

JEALOUSY AND MURDER.—The physicians in attendance on Moses Hecht, the musician, who was shot yesterday morning by Fred Rozar, are of the opinion that he will not be alive to night.
Rozar is in the county jail and will probably be examined before Esquire Creighton to-morrow. Rozar has a handsome wife, and jealousy is said to be the cause of the shooting.

YARD WIDE BROWN DOMESTICS nine cents a yard. See Elson's advertisement. 95

WHITE SHAD, ETC.—Traders, at 324 Front street, have rice and oat herrings, properly cleaned and heads off, which are pronounced by North Carolina judges to be equal to any they have ever tasted. Being endorsed by those who are well qualified by experience to judge, they must be good. Lovers of herrings should call at Trader's and obtain a supply as soon as possible.

MACK BROS. & BOHM are closing out at astonishing low figures.

CAN'T BE DONE.—It is no use in talking, Henry G. Hampe's bath rooms cannot and never will be beat, because Henry knows how to keep them clean and in good order. No. 11 Poplar street is the place to take a swim, no danger of drowning. Go and spend fifty cents with Henry, it may save you a big doctor bill. 77-102

CLUNY lace handkerchiefs from one to five dollars each. See Elson's advertisement. 95

We have just taken up stock and reduced it 25 per cent. less than we have been selling recently. Call and examine for yourself. SHELLO & BRO., 247 Main st., opposite Odd Fellows' Hall. 92

GRATIFYING.—The ladies can now find a supply of the celebrated "Hesperian Balm," for the complexion, at the principal drug stores. Nipgen & Reankert, Mansfield & Higbee, G. W. Jones, and Ward & LeGuere, all have a supply of this favorite and excellent article. 92

POLICE COURT.—Twenty names graced the police court docket this morning, $119.50 being assessed for fines and $59 collected. A colored individual named Alek Hunt is held on a warrant for stealing cotton.

Don't forget to attend the great closing sales of damaged dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, at M. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213
Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store. The goods must be closed out within thirty days, regardless of cost or value.
